EVENT DECOR, ATMOSPHERE,
AND CREATIVE DIRECTION

We put the finishing touch on moments that deserve to be remembered.

Through decoration and ambience, we transform each space into a carefully crafted and elegant experience with soul.

Hi! I'm Cristina, an event planner and designer, as well as the founder of El Broche Final, and yes, I believe in the power of details.

I believe in sensitivity – in what is felt rather than said.
In harmony that transforms spaces, and in aesthetics that awaken emotions.

My work combines decoration, creative direction, and styling to create settings that reflect the essence of each person, brand, or event. I am inspired by simple beauty, natural elegance, and the ability of well-crafted details to move us without the need for words.

My purpose is to accompany you in giving shape to what you imagine. To interpret your ideas, synthesize your style, and turn it into a setting that not only looks beautiful... but feels special.

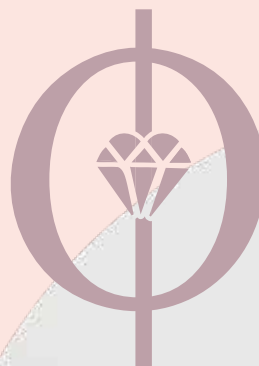

– Cristina
Founder of El Broche Final

Because your event deserves to be unique, and we are here to ensure that it is.

At El Broche Final, we focus on settings that breathe: spaces that invite you, that welcome, that tell a story.

We work with materials, textures, light, and composition in a meticulous, artisanal way. Our style is defined by elegance, balance, and aesthetic sensitivity.

Every project is unique.
Every event has a soul.
Our job is to make it visible.

Let me tell you..

BENEFITS OF A PROFESSIONALLY DESIGNED EVENT

Professional and polished image

Event decor that aligns with your company's values and characteristics will increase brand recall among event attendees.

Finding an aesthetic that defines and represents you will be the first step in attracting potential buyers or customers.

Settings that reinforce the event's message

Every event has a goal it wants to achieve. Creating decor that is aligned with the brand and that goal will reinforce the message you want to convey and, therefore, ensure that the event's impact extends beyond the venue itself.

Space optimisation

In many cases, the dimensions of the chosen space do not perfectly match the activities that will take place at the event. Having people by your side who can transform these spaces is key to overcoming problems such as spaces that are too small or even too large. The latter can give the impression of a lack of planning, flaws in the process and even a lack of professionalism.

Practical, aesthetic and functional solutions

Seeking help from professionals in the decoration sector is beneficial for all brands that want to raise their profile and improve their digital presence.

Carefully planned events that are aligned with the brand, unique and experiential will ensure that attendees leave with fond memories of the event and a positive feeling associated with the brand that will last forever.

Products and services

Given that El Broche Final operates not only in the events world but also in the bridal sector, our style, although adapted to each client, is an elegant style that seeks to convey a message.

Brands no longer just communicate – they create experiences.

And those experiences need carefully thought-out and crafted settings. We understand design as a way of expressing what each brand is, and as a result, it must be consistent with its values and products or services.

Work process

At El Broche Final, we like to work closely with our clients. We want to get to know them well, understand what they are looking for, what their objectives are, and what style they want. Throughout the project design process, we create more than just a working relationship; we create bonds, because that is the only effective way we know how to work. It is a collaborative process in which both parties are involved to achieve projects that are 100% consistent with the brand.

Here is a little preview of our work process.

CONNECTION + BRIEFING

We want to learn about your style, your ideas, and your goals.

ASSEMBLY

Complete coordination so you don't have to worry about a thing..

DESIGN + MOODBOARD

We create the aesthetic proposal for the event.

FINAL REVIEW

Adjustment of details and harmonisation of the space

PLANNING

Materials, timings and technical requirements
